

THE CREATIVE

at KLONDIKE A Community Arts Center

Hello Volunteers!

What we need most during the camping season is volunteers. It's a super easy job – just sell the occasional bag of ice, bundle of wood and greet people as they come in to use the bathroom and MARVEL at the unexpected art inside. There is a lot of down time, and you are in the perfect place to read a great book, or work on a long-neglected art project.

Please consider taking one a day a month, (or a weekend!) It is crucial to our being able to stay open, and as we are all volunteers here, your help gives one of the committee members a break.

THANK you for your consideration and continue to follow what we are doing at The Creative at Klondike as we have a lot upcoming of interest to many. Cannot wait to see you there.
